

Join one of our Tayto Tour Guides as they guide you through our fully operational factory. Walk with them as you follow the spud's journey down the production line, through the flavouring station and to the packing line. With many stops along the way, your Tayto Tour Guide will share lots of information and answer any questions.

How to Book

To book or for more information please complete our online enquiry form at www.taytotours.com or email tours@tayto.com. A member of our tour department will get in touch for further information.

Facilities

Unfortunately we do not provide any catering provision or an allocated lunch space on site.

Our toilets are on the factory floor, supervision is essential.

Groups sizes

We recommend one class per visit, with a max size of 45 pupils. The group will be split in three as they move round the factory.

We will require a supervising adult to bring up the rear of each group in a high vis jacket.

Safety Information

While you are on our premises your safety and wellbeing is our number one priority and as such;

- Visitors are required to wear appropriate footwear (no high heels or open toes).
- Visitors are required to wear appropriate clothing to include full coverage of arms and legs
- All jewellery and personal items should be removed before arriving onsite.
- Cameras and mobile phones are not allowed in the factory.

Getting Here

We are located within the Castle grounds of 'Tayto Castle' which is over 500 years old.

We offer no parking onsite so request that you park on the main street in Tandragee and enter via the green gate behind the War Memorial. You will then make your way up the avenue into the courtyard, where your Tayto Tour Guide will greet you.

Health & Safety

Tayto Tours consists of a tour of a fully operational factory. Full protective clothing will be provided.

The factory floor is very noisy so ear protection is provided.

A full Health and Safety brief will be given before tour.

Allergies/Accessibility

We use lots of different ingredients here at Tayto, so please inform us about any allergies that affect your group prior to your visit.

Due to the unique nature of the site, unfortunately The Famous Tayto Castle is not wheelchair accessible, nor suitable for those that have difficulty managing stairs.

To discuss your visit please contact a member of our tours team at tours@tayto.com.
